Whitedowns is just under a mile from bustling Dorking High Street. This picturesque historic market town offers stunning scenery, striking architecture and the winding River Mole set aside the town's vast array of antique and bric-a-brac shops, art galleries and independent boutique shops, cafes, bars and restaurants. High Street 'heavyweight' brands are also represented including Waitrose and Marks & Spencer.

Dorking has a wealth of local amenities and is surrounded by stunning, undulating countryside to explore and, if you venture a little further afield into the heart of the Surrey Hills, you can enjoy the delights of Box Hill, Leith Hill or take a visit to the Denbies Wine Estate for an afternoon's tasting, amongst other activities and tours.

Whitedowns really does offer the best of both words - a country lifestyle yet with everything you could need close by for modern day living.

Modern Day Living

Dorking is awash with excellent schools. For those with younger children there's Dorking Nursery School and Children's Centre and St Pauls Church Nursery. Local primary schools include St Paul's Church of England Primary School, St Joseph's Catholic Primary School, St Martin's C of E primary School. For secondary education there is The Priory C of E School (11 yrs-18 yrs), The Ashcombe School and The Priory School. There are also some well-regarded independent schools, such as Box Hill, which is 4.3 miles away (10mins*).

For those needing to travel or commute, there are excellent rail links to London. Dorking mainline tation (1.97miles, 7 mins*) has trains to London Waterloo in just 53 minutes and regular bus services also offer numerous routes in and around Dorking. Dorking West Station (1.24miles, 5 mins*) sits on the North Downs and Great Western lines to South West, and has regular services to Guildford, Wokingham and Reading, opening up the wide South West and South Wales.

About Rushmon Homes

At Rushmon Homes we've been creating a warm welcome in our new homes for over 47 years now. As an established family business with our own children and grandchildren, we're able to understand the evolving needs of our purchasers as they and their families change and grow over the generations.

Our homes are design-led to provide light, spacious, adaptable living spaces that are a joy to be in – whether you're relaxing peacefully, socialising with friends or celebrating with loved ones.

Over the years, our customers have consistently found the quality of our homes reassuring. Our keen eye for design certainly makes our properties look elegant and inviting, but they're also refreshingly practical, functional and durable.

Our craftsmen use time-honoured building traditions and only the best materials to produce a fine finish.

Based in Surrey, we have acquired a wealth of local knowledge which enables us to develop homes in some of the most sought-after areas in the South East, yet virtually all our developments are created on recycled land.

Perhaps it's a combination of all of these things that has won us a number of prestigious awards over time, with one judging panel noting of our Twin Trees scheme in Woking, "This development shows the value of well-thought-out regeneration, especially for those looking for that elusive object – the ideal family home".

Of course it's always very rewarding to receive such recognition, but our greatest accolade remains the positive feedback we hear from the people who matter most – our purchasers.
